THE AGRICULTURE BOARD FIGURES ON ITS EXPENSES

Rubber Tree on Tantalus Green in Driest Season—Hawaiian Woods Intended for St. Louis Now on Exhibition.

Discussion of the annual report now ready to go to the printers occupied the attention of the members of the Board of Agriculture at their meeting yesterday afternoon. The finance committee's report was of first consideration and occupied most of the time of the meeting.

President Thurston of the board showed a branch which he had broken from a species of rubber tree which grows on Tantalus. During the driest seasons this tree was always green, the leaves looking moist and of a very deep color.

The report of Superintendent of Forestry Hosmer on the routine work of the bureau was as follows:

I have the honor to submit the report of the Division of Forestry for the past three weeks.

During this time the various members of the Division have been mainly engaged in the preparation of the annual report of the Division and of other matters to be included in the annual report of the board, such as the statements of the expenditures during the past eighteen months, lists of the woods and fruits in the Museum room, and details relative to the library and the nursery.

A planting plan for certain lands of the Maui Agricultural Company on Maui has been prepared and sent to Mr. H. A. Baldwin, the manager of the company, in accordance with the offer of the Division of Forestry to render assistance to private owners in the management of their wood lands. An examination of the tract was made by the Superintendent of Forestry, during his last visit to Maui. The planting plan was drawn up jointly by the Superintendent and the field foreman.

On Saturday night last, the field foreman delivered a paper to the Kaimuki, Palolo and Waialae Improvement Association, on Tree Planting on Streets and Highways. The association proposes to plant trees in the three sections and has called upon the Division of Forestry for advice as to the best methods and as to the kinds of trees to be used.

During the past three weeks, there have been a number of accessions to the library of the board. Chief among these are the important botanical works, the "Index Kewensis," and Bentham Hooker's "Genera Plantarum," purchased by the Board from Bernard Quaritch of London, and recently received. Thirty-four annual reports from the Smithsonian Institution have been received, practically completing the file of this important publication. With these have come the usual number of State Experiment Station and other similar reports.

The collection of Hawaiian woods intended for the St. Louis Exposition, which was turned over to the Board during the summer, and which has been prepared and mounted for proper exhibition, has now been installed in the Museum room of the board and is open to the public. Owing to the imperfect records kept when the logs were collected, many of them came to us nameless. For properly labelling the specimens the Board is under no small obligation to Messrs. T. G. Thrum and Eben Low, who have kindly helped us out of what might otherwise have been a serious dilemma. It is expected that the fruits will also be ready for exhibition within a very short time.

On Thursday, January 26th, the board room was used for a meeting of the recently organized Hawaiian Entomological Society.

If your hair is too long, go to your barber. He has the remedy—a pair of shears. If your hair is too short, go to your druggist. He has the remedy—a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Ayer's Hair Vigor Is a Hair Food.

It feeds the hair. The hair grows long and heavy because it gives to the hair just what it needs. If your hair is turning gray, it shows there is lack of hair nourishment. Give your hair this hair-food and it will take on new life. Soon all the deep, rich color of youth will return to it.

We are sure you will be greatly pleased with Ayer's Hair Vigor as a hair-dressing. It makes the hair soft and smooth, and prevents splitting at the ends.

the house. Then came sharp words and the girl ran into the house sobbing and sought her mistress.

"Me no want go 'way," she cried. "But you said you did," answered the housewife.

"No, no, me stay—no like man." Not knowing Japanese customs or the rights of the women, the housewife deemed it best not to interfere. Then the men came again and one on each side of her the little woman was led away. She reluctantly mounted the seat of a wagon in waiting, her bundle of clothing being tumbled in behind her, and the party drove away. Five minutes later the woman was back at the house breathless with running, but the men came after her, and she then said naively she had come for some medicine she had forgotten. Three times the woman returned to obtain some forgotten keepsake.

Then with a resigned air she said: "Me make," illustrating a method by which she implied she would meet her death by hanging.

The cook all the afternoon was moody. At dinner-time he became noisy. Pans rattled and dishes clattered. He announced that it was his intention to find Sumi and bring her back, and intimated also that the "other man" would be spitted with a sword if he interfered.

However, the cook turned up yesterday morning to prepare the family breakfast, and bore no signs of conflict upon his physiognomy. But the girl was not in the house. Ichi had failed to locate her.

GEORGE THIELEN IS A STOCK BROKER

George P. Thielen was elected unanimously to membership in the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange yesterday at an executive session of that body. Mr. Thielen has purchased the seat on the Exchange of H. P. Eakin, paying $5000 therefor.

Mr. Thielen will now enter actively into the stock brokerage business and will shortly open an office on Fort street.

Mr. Thielen has been a resident of Honolulu for several years and is well known in judicial, legislative and commercial circles. He is at present secretary of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, and is court reporter of the United States District Court under Sanford B. Dole. In the last Legislature Mr. Thielen was stenographer in the House of Representatives, and has been more or less prominent in the Republican party.

It is the intention of Mr. Thielen to retire from the position of court reporter for the United States District Court.

PENSACOLA STREET IS BEING OILED

The experiment of moulding Pensacola street with oil was begun yesterday morning by the Public Works department. The Ewa side of the thoroughfare was yesterday morning treated to a heavy coating of crude oil and this was then sprinkled over with crushed stone surface-finish. The road will finally be rolled.

This experiment is being carried on with a view to ascertaining whether a road treated in this manner will not stand the heavy traffic to which Pensacola street is subjected. All day long heavily-laden stone wagons are driven over it, and the best macadamized road is soon torn into ruts.

THE EDITOR MAKES AMENDS

We desire to correct a slight error that crept into our columns last week either through the stupidity or the natural cussedness of one Jim Richards, whom out of the goodness of our heart we had taken in his hour of need and gave a job as printer on this publication. In an article announcing the appearance of a book of poems by our esteemed townsman, Mr. Ruble Crowther, we took occasion to refer to the gentleman as the leading literary light of Laurel Hill. Much to our regret, as we need hardly say, the word "weight" was added to our remarks, making us, wholly without our knowledge and distinctly against our will, speak of Mr. Crowther as "the leading literary lightweight" of this city. We have only to say that we have discharged the guilty party and recommended Mr. Crowther's poetry to all lovers of genuine literature. We would also say in this connection that our highly gifted and rapidly rising poet's father, Mr. G. Crowther, has just received a large supply of boots and shoes, hats, caps, and harness, which it would be well to examine before buying elsewhere. Mr. Crowther is also paying the highest market price for butter and eggs. See his ad on page four. The Crowthers are able to trace their ancestry back in a direct line to the Mayflower—Laurel Hill Lightning Arrester.

PEOPLE WE KNOW

They Are Honolulu People and What They Say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right in Honolulu, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

Mrs. N. Joseph lives at the corner of Liliha and King streets, this city. She states as follows: "I was troubled for seven months with a lame back, and also suffered from occasional attacks of chills. These various complaints made my condition by no means a happy one, so that I much desired some remedy which would bring relief. This I found in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, some of which I obtained at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. I am pleased to say that they gave me not merely temporary but permanent relief and I have not the least hesitancy therefore in recommending Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. They are a good kidney medicine."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers at 50 cents per box, (six boxes $2.50). Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

"Do you care for pate de foie gras, Mrs. Newsdays?" "No, ma'am; and I wouldn't have his works in my house. I think these French authors is just scandalous!"—Cleveland Leader.
